

A REMINDER ABOUT YOUR CONSERVATION PRACTICE ADOPTION MOTIVATIONS SURVEY

United States Department of Agriculture
National Agricultural Statistics Service

Make your voice heard!

Don't miss your chance to tell the real story of conservation in U.S. agriculture. Fill out your Conservation Practice Adoption Motivations Survey for confined livestock practices today. The deadline for submission is August 19.

This survey is a joint project between USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) and Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS). The survey results will be used to guide the implementation of NRCS programs in the future.

Thank you for your participation. If you have any questions, please contact us at 888-424-7828.
