

STATE OF KANSAS

PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

TO THE PEOPLE OF KANSAS, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Kansas farmers and ranchers are global leaders in agricultural production and exports, successfully providing food and fiber for the world and driving our state's economy; and

WHEREAS, Kansas exported over $4.64 billion in agricultural products in 2023, ranking among top agricultural export states in the nation and supporting global trade; and

WHEREAS, Kansas ranks among the top 10 U.S. states in agricultural exports, shipping products to 99 countries and strengthening global trade relationships; and

WHEREAS, Kansas' leading agriculture exports including meat, cereals, oilseeds, and dairy products play a significant role in feeding the world and reinforcing Kansas' reputation as an agricultural leader; and

WHEREAS, the enhancement of trade relations and the development of new trade agreements are vital for the continued growth and success of Kansas' agricultural sector; and

WHEREAS, Kansas farmers, ranchers and agribusinesses contribute to international trade through innovation, sustainability and commitment to high-quality agricultural product.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Laura Kelly, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF KANSAS, do hereby proclaim March 19, 2025, as in the state of Kansas and I urge all citizens to join in this observation.

Kansas Agriculture Trade Day

DONE: At the Capitol in Topeka
